

Zouwendid

Mrs. Minnie Parlow

~~American Hotel~~

~~Maas Hotel~~

Amsterdam

Holland

Rotterdam

D. W. POLKAROFF, PH.D.
1234567890

A 485

F 318

St. Petersburg 5 May, 1847
Dear Mrs. Parlow,

it is very painful that Linda did not go as well as we expected; but there is nothing lost; Kathleen has to begin next year; ^{successors} Pray has to manage her an engagements in one of the Orchestral-Concerts and then we will see. -

In any case. You had to pay, what she say in France,
"La part du Diable" for the chance you had in the Writers and wish, I hope,

You will find again!

Flaunig wrote to me an apology of the Guarneri, saying that the greatest violinists were enchanted with the fiddle. -- I answered that the best he could do, would be to take it bag and sell ^{it} to one of the amateurs. -- I shall see him in Berlin when passing for Paris. --

I shall be there, I think,
The 15 ² de mai -- till the 22 and this day arrive at the Grand Central Hotel. -- Adresse;
Hotel Meyerbeer, Rond
Point des Champs-Elysées.

Never mine, so I telegraphed to Kathleen, and so I repeat now, Never mine!

Best love to Yo and Kathleen. --
L. Quer

I leave Peterburgh the 28 April
11 May. --

